Believers' Baptism

Are you considering Christ's command to be baptised? Are you still unsure and have questions about baptism? Then please speak to Pastor Paul or contact him at pastor@ibc-bremen.de

Membership at IBC Bremen

If you consider IBC Bremen to be your spiritual home – for however long the Lord allows you to be in Bremen... 6 months, 2 years, 20 years... we invite you to consider becoming a member here. To find out more, please speak to Pastor Paul or write to pastor@ibc-bremen.de

Get involved!

Are you still looking for your “niche” at IBC Bremen – somewhere where you can get to know others and share your gifts? We'd love to help you find your place.

You don't have to be an expert – we'd be happy to help you learn and we'd also be interested in your suggestions.

The following teams would particularly appreciate your help:

Children's Ministry (Sunday School) – speak to Ruth or Ole

Greeter Team (welcoming people to church) – speak to Anika

Hospitality (refreshments, washing up) – speak to Lydia or Heidi

Security (making sure people and property stay safe) – speak to Victor

Sound Team / Beamer Team / Media – speak to Jan Christoph

Travelling? Don't miss out!

In case you miss a sermon while you're away, or would like to listen to one again, please note that our Sunday messages are usually recorded and available for listening to on our website. We encourage you to make use of this.

IBC – our sister churches

If you are travelling, it's always worth checking to see if you will be near one of our sister churches in the International Baptist Convention.

We are currently one of 63 English-language international churches based in 25 countries in Europe, the Middle East, Africa and the Americas.

Have a look at their website www.ibc-churches.org
